Source note: TestPointPK solved past paper: NTS Assistant Solved Past Paper 07-12-2024 (99 blocks = 101 MCQs; the passage block splits into 3 sub-questions Q74–Q76). Stems, four or five options and the site-marked key per question as captured from the page HTML (correct option carries class=correct), 14 Nov 2026. The source states no department and no printed total; department identified from the paper's own overseas-employment domain questions; filed as the complete paper as presented (101/101). 3 site-key corrections: Q47 d→B (Conclusion summarizes key findings, not Methodology — report-writing sources); Q60 d→C (a Novel is not a report type; Research report is — report-type tables); Q77 d→A (site's own explanation says painting: artist). Passage keys Q74 D, Q75 C, Q76 B derived from the passage text and verified by comprehension. Q65 C (Ministry established 7th June 2013) confirmed by the Ministry's own Year Book 2017-18. Q67 C (OPF budget around 1629 million) rests on the site marking alone — no separate budget document located. Ambiguities disclosed in the file: Q16 (traffic sign also non-verbal), Q19 (Hate also opposite of Adore), Q46 (A and D near-duplicates), Q83 (Release also arguable), Q85 (Galileo most commonly called father of modern physics; Newton filed per the bank).

Question 74 English

Passage: As far as industrial pollution is concerned, while a commendable job has been done by the Department of environment in making environmental impact assessment studies and ensuring that new big industries have built-in systems for pollution abatement and control, the problem of controlling pollution caused by small new units and existing plants has so far eluded solution. The 1986 Act has undoubtedly given greater legal powers to State Pollution Boards and other concerned authorities to penalize offenders. However, it must be recognized that punitive action alone will not suffice. If we are serious about controlling industrial pollution, the carrot must be used along with the stick. To control industrial pollution

- A. existing plants without pollution abatement and control systems should be closed down
- B. no new small units should be allowed to come up
- C. no new big industries should be allowed to come up
- D. only such new big industries should be allowed to come up that have built-in-systems for pollution control ✓ Correct answer

A. Wrong: the passage says the problem of existing plants has eluded solution; it does not propose closing them down.

B. Wrong: the passage says the problem of small new units has eluded solution; it does not propose banning them.

e passage praises the control of new big industries, it does not propose stopping them.

D. Correct: the passage says the Department ensures "new big industries have built-in systems for pollution abatement and control" — so only such industries should come up. (Key derived from the passage itself; see Verification Summary.)

Question 75 English

Passage: As far as industrial pollution is concerned, while a commendable job has been done by the Department of environment in making environmental impact assessment studies and ensuring that new big industries have built-in systems for pollution abatement and control, the problem of controlling pollution caused by small new units and existing plants has so far eluded solution. The 1986 Act has undoubtedly given greater legal powers to State Pollution Boards and other concerned authorities to penalize offenders. However, it must be recognized that punitive action alone will not suffice. If we are serious about controlling industrial pollution, the carrot must be used along with the stick. The problem of controlling industrial pollution remains unsolved because

- A. offenders are not punished
- B. State Pollution Boards and other concerned authorities haven't got sufficient legal powers to deal with the offenders
- C. the problem has not been dealt with in a comprehensive manner ✓ Correct answer
- D. the industrialists are not cooperating with the government

A. Wrong: the passage says the 1986 Act gave powers to penalize offenders; punishment is not the missing piece.

B. Wrong: the passage says the 1986 Act "has undoubtedly given greater legal powers" to the Boards.

C. Correct: punishment alone will not suffice and the carrot must be used with the stick — has not been dealt with comprehensively. (Key derived from the passage itself; see Verification Summary.)

D. Wrong: the passage does not say industrialists are uncooperative.

Question 76 English

Passage: As far as industrial pollution is concerned, while a commendable job has been done by the Department of environment in making environmental impact assessment studies and ensuring that new big industries have built-in systems for pollution abatement and control, the problem of controlling pollution caused by small new units and existing plants has so far eluded solution. The 1986 Act has undoubtedly given greater legal powers to State Pollution Boards and other concerned authorities to penalize offenders. However, it must be recognized that punitive action alone will not suffice. If we are serious about controlling industrial pollution, the carrot must be used along with the stick. On the whole, industrial pollution can be controlled only when

- A. State Pollution Boards and other concerned authorities are given more legal powers to deal with the offenders
- B. the policy of reward and punishment is introduced ✓ Correct answer
- C. no small units are allowed to come up
- D. existing plants without pollution abatement and control systems are closed down

A. Wrong: the passage says the Boards already have greater legal powers under the 1986 Act.

B. Correct: "the carrot must be used along with the stick" — reward (carrot) with punishment (stick). (Key derived from the passage itself; see Verification Summary.)

C. Wrong: the passage does not propose banning small units.

D. Wrong: the passage does not propose closing existing plants.
