Urdu was declared the national language of Pakistan in which year ?

- A. Mar 1956 ✓ Correct answer
- B. April 1958
- C. April 1954
- D. August 1947

A. Correct: the 1956 Constitution, which came into force on 23 March 1956, declared Urdu and Bengali the national languages of Pakistan.

B. Wrong: 1958 is the year of Ayub Khan's martial law, not a language declaration.

C. Wrong as the answer here: some MCQ books cite a 1954 Constituent Assembly resolution on the two languages, but the constitutional declaration is the 1956 Constitution, so March 1956 stands.

D. Wrong: Urdu was widely used from independence, but it was not constitutionally declared the national language in 1947.

Question 2 Pak Studies

The second meeting of the Khilafat Movement was held in .

- A. None (Amritsar) ✓ Correct answer
- B. Lahore
- C. Delhi
- D. Mumbai

A. Correct: the Khilafat Movement's Amritsar session of December 1919 is the one the paper's key (and the second source's lead explanation) counts as the second meeting; Amritsar is in none of options B–D, so 'None' with the parenthetical Amritsar is the keyed answer.

B. Wrong: no Khilafat conference of this sequence was held in Lahore.

this key: the Delhi session of November 1919 is counted as the second meeting in some listings, which is why this stem is genuinely ambiguous — but the printed key and the second source's lead sentence both give Amritsar, so A stands.

D. Wrong: the first Khilafat conference was held in Bombay (Mumbai) in July 1919, not the second.

Question 3 Pak Studies

How many constitutions have been enforced in Pakistan ?

- A. Two
- B. Five
- C. Four
- D. Three ✓ Correct answer

A. Wrong: Pakistan has had three constitutions, not two.

B. Wrong: five is far above the real count.

C. Wrong: there is no fourth enforced constitution.

D. Correct: the constitutions of 1956, 1962 and 1973 — three in all, as the second source's own explanation also lists.

- A. Liaquat Ali Khan
- B. Fatima Jinnah
- C. Maulana Muhammad Ali Johar ✓ Correct answer
- D. Allama Iqbal

A. Wrong: Liaquat was Jinnah's deputy and first prime minister, but he is not the leader credited with helping draft the Fourteen Points.

tima Jinnah was Jinnah's sister and companion, not a drafter of the points.

C. Correct: the points were consolidated with the help of Maulana Muhammad Ali Jauhar, as the second source's explanation also states.

D. Wrong: Iqbal influenced Jinnah's thinking, but the drafting help credited in the standard account is Jauhar's.

Question 5 Pak Studies

What was the official language declared in the 1956 Constitution ?

- A. Bengali
- B. Urdu
- C. None of these
- D. Both A& B ✓ Correct answer
