> How to use this paper: each question shows the stem, the four options, and the correct answer. Click “Why each option?” under a question to see all four options explained — one question teaches four topics. General Knowledge answers are as of the 2014 sitting.

Source note: trickipoint.com, 'SPSC CCE 2013 Past Paper' (accessed 10 Nov 2026; 100 stems numbered 1-100, Paper Type B, all 4-option except Q13 and Q20 which have 5 options A-E). No printed key. Every answer was verified independently under the owner's 8 Nov 2026 standard. 6 PICK-ONE (Q33 A, Q37 C, Q57 B, Q58 B, Q75 B, Q78 A — reasons in the file). 2 DEFECTIVE-excluded: Q26 (no correct option as printed — drug addicts are 'rehabilitated'/'treated', not among the options) and Q65 (the Shariah Bill was the 15th Amendment Bill of 1998, not among the options 11th/8th/6th/12th). Q1 B 'Why were you defrauded of your earnings' VERIFIED against Wren & Martin Ex. 62 + testbook/prepp (stem mislabels the active sentence '(Passive Voice)'). Q87 options printed A/B/C/E (no D printed); answer A Norway. Q75 option D truncated in the scan ('John A...' presumably John Adams); answer does not depend on it. NOTE: the sourcing log (line 2266) records this sitting as REJECTED — that rejection was of a Scribd recall-only reproduction (no options, Q75-Q76 missing), VOID per the Wave 47 recall-only precedent; this build uses the complete trickipoint scan of the actual question paper. Question 1 English General

"Why did he defraud you of your earnings" (Passive Voice). Choose the correct Active Voice from the given combinations?

- A. Why I was defrauded of my earnings.
- B. Why were you defrauded of your earnings ✓ Correct answer
- C. Why was I defrauded of my earnings.
- D. Why was he defrauded of his earnings..

A. "Why I was defrauded" is not a question (wrong word order) and changes "you" to "I".

B. The passive of "Why did he defraud you of your earnings?" is "Why were you defrauded of your earnings (by him)?" — the object "you" becomes the subject with "were" (Wren & Martin, Exercise 62).

C. This changes "you" to "I" and is not a question (no question mark).

D. This changes the victim from "you" to "he" and is not the passive of the given sentence.

Note: Note: the stem mislabels the given sentence "(Passive Voice)" — it is active; the task is to form the passive, and B is the correct passive form.

Question 2 English General

The sentence that follows is (Direct Speech). Choose the most appropriate sentence in Indirect Speech from the given combinations. "Dear bird", she said, stroking its feathers, "have you come to comfort me in my sorrows?"

- A. She exclaimed whether he had come to comfort her sorrows by stroking the Birds feathers.
- B. She asked affectionately whether or not it had come to comfort her sorrows while stroking the bird's feathers.

said if it had come to comfort her sorrows while stroking bird's feathers.

- D. Stroking the bird's feathers, she asked affectionately whether it had come to comfort her in her sorrows. ✓ Correct answer

A. The sentence is a question, not an exclamation, and "he" is wrong (the bird is "it").

B. "Whether or not" is the weaker form, and "comfort her sorrows" drops "in" — D is the more appropriate indirect form.

C. "She said if" is not the correct reporting form for a question, and "bird's feathers" needs the article.

D. The correct indirect form: the question becomes "whether it had come to comfort her in her sorrows", reported with "asked affectionately".

Question 3 English General

Question 57 General Knowledge

The British Commander-in-Chief who came to India in March 1943 offered a scheme for the settlement of future Political Problems of India is known as:

- A. Lord Irwin
- B. Lord Wavell ✓ Correct answer
- C. Lord Kirzin
- D. None of these

A. Lord Irwin was Viceroy in 1926–31, not the Commander-in-Chief of 1943.

B. Lord Wavell was Commander-in-Chief India (1942–43) and later Viceroy; the "Wavell Plan" (1945) was his scheme for the settlement of India's political problems.

C. Lord Curzon (printed "Kirzin") was Viceroy in 1899–1905, not of 1943.

D. Lord Wavell is the intended answer, so "None of these" is wrong.

Note: Note: the stem's dating is muddled — Wavell was C-in-C India from January 1942 to June 1943 and became Viceroy in October 1943; his scheme (the Wavell Plan) came in 1945. B is the intended answer (decided by the assistant under the owner's 8 Nov 2026 delegation).

Question 58 General Knowledge

Railway tracks are banked on curves so that:

- A. The train may not fall down inward
- B. Necessary centrifugal force may be obtained from the horizontal component of the weight of the train ✓ Correct answer

frictional force may be produced between the track and the wheel

- D. To help in automatic turning of the train.

A. Banking is not to stop the train falling inward.

B. The intended answer: banking lets the horizontal component of the normal reaction provide the force needed for turning (the option's wording is imprecise — it says "centrifugal force" and "weight", where the correct physics is centripetal force from the horizontal component of the normal reaction).

C. Banking reduces reliance on friction but does not eliminate it.

D. Banking does not make the train turn automatically.

Note: Note: the option's wording is imprecise, but B is the intended answer (decided by the assistant under the owner's 8 Nov 2026 delegation).

70 General Knowledge

Speed of sound is greater in solids than in liquids because:

- A. The atoms in solids are regularly arranged
- B. The liquids have high elasticity
- C. The solids have high elasticity ✓ Correct answer
- D. The atoms in liquids are closely packed

A. Regular arrangement alone does not explain the greater speed of sound in solids.

B. Liquids have lower elasticity than solids; that is why sound is slower in them.

C. The speed of sound depends on elasticity (and density); solids are more elastic than liquids, so sound travels faster in them.

D. Atoms in liquids are closely packed, but that does not explain why sound is faster in solids.

Question 71 General Knowledge

Architecture of Faisal Mosque was designed by:

- A. Saudi
- B. Turkish ✓ Correct answer
